“ There's no sweeter word than Mother No matter where you go no matter how far away no matter how much time goes by a Mother remains in your heart and you in hers It's been said you can never go home again wherever Mother is that's home and her arms are always open to receive you no matter how you left The sting of a Mother's death never goes away just lessens with time Mother is now done with the trouble of this world and has gone on to be with the Lord She lay down on earth but woke up in Glory This is not good bye just until we meet again I pass God's peace to all of you and pray God's blessings continue to rain down upon you Sleep well Mother one day soon I'll be coming home to join you Keep your arms open!
