

Brian Chumita

December 31, 1964 - May 30, 2019

Brian Chumita was born on New Year's Eve of 1964 to Emil "Chum", also deceased, and Bea Chumita in Youngstown, Ohio. He was the youngest of four children, including Mark, Cheryl, and Marlene Chumita (Hanson). The family soon moved to Mentor, Ohio. Brian graduated from Mentor High School in 1982 and in October of that same year he joined the United States Navy. He studied electricity and traveled the world. The USS Iowa took him to Scotland, Ireland, Iceland, and Greenland among his adventures. When he came home he raced motorcycles, collected eagles, and built model trains while building bonds with his niece, Amanda and nephew, Danny. In 1990 he began dating his sister's best friend, Babette Dryer "Boo", and before he knew it, he had a family with her young daughter Sunny Farinacci. In 1993 the little family welcomed Cayne Chumita. The Chumita family continued to grow with the birth of his niece, Nicole and nephew, Timothy. In 1994 the four of them solidified their family with a wedding in Chesterland, Ohio and a week long drive across the country to start their lives in Idaho. Brian became an avid outdoorsman and killed a prized Elk his first winter in the mountains. He also ran a successful drywall business called Dusty Trail Drywall. He enjoyed making his wife's family his own. This included her brother, Frank, sisters, Jody and Sandy, and two beautiful nephews, Dakota and River. In 1999 the family came back to Ohio and bought a home in Painesville. Brian gutted the inside with his "brother," Lee Hanson right away and customized it with drywall art. He was a problem solver and an innovator. His drywall was called legendary by his former boss and hunting buddy Mike Payne. His creativity flourished when he started his own business called River Run Drywall subcontracting through Payne and Payne. He was always around to lend a hand to anyone in need of muscle. He was a loving and supportive uncle to Jaime Wheeler after her birth in 2004. He loved being a great uncle to Landon, Kyla, Luke, and Isaac. On Saturday nights you could find him having a bonfire and playing rock music just a little too loud. The family made a life filled with laughter and parties. Brian built and maintained a beautiful garden and canned his signature salsa, pickles, and pasta sauce. In 2014 he was preceded in death by his wife Boo. In 2018 Brian welcomed his first grandchild Luna Babette Fatica. They made each other laugh and watched the wind in the trees at the end of Grove Avenue. He took pride in keeping his lawn looking like a park. Brian was always the comic relief. He was exciting, spontaneous, sometimes reckless, and always funny. His face became a smile so easily, but life is hard. If his family could tell him one last thing it would be to go fishing, kill a deer, get some fresh air, and please seek help at 1-800-273-8255.

Brian's family will be greeting his friends and colleagues on Saturday June 8th from 10-11 a.m. at the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor. A funeral service in memory of Brian will begin at 11 a.m. on Saturday at the funeral home. A private after party will follow.

In lieu of flowers, his children are asking for donations that will help them drive across the country to take Brian to the mountains one last time.

Please offer condolences at www.brunners.com.

“ On May 5, 2001 my wife Jody and myself met Boo, Sunny and Cayne at a Bon Jovi concert at the Q in Cleveland, Ohio where we all instantly bonded. The families became friends over the years and we always looked forward to seeing Brian, Boo and family at our annual Chili Cookoff and the times we went to Painesville for cookout, especially that bacon drip over toast was awesome and our son had a blast doing the manly outdoor stuff with Brian..What a kind thoughtful caring family they were and are. We miss Boo soo much and will dearly miss Brian’s warm smile. Sunny and Cayne we are ALWAYS here for you for whatever you need. Love you and hope we see you at our next Chili Cookoff on September 29.

Love You,

Mike & Jody

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Brian. He sat directly behind me in homeroom from 9th grade through graduation. We even shared lockers. He was a kind, quiet, and compassionate person. I remember him liking Slmon and Garfunckle. He borrowed that album from me once. I Believe at that time he was trying to learn the guitar and wanted to see if he could learn their songs. Oh, memories. I am thankful he was a daily part of my life when we were much younger.

God Bless
