“ I met Clare at Salida Woods when my Dad first arrived there. Dad sat at Clare's table for only a short time - but for the past year I have always stopped by the "old" table to say hello to Clare and he always brightened up when I spoke to him. He was a lovely man and I wanted to let you know that even when we aren't with our loved ones there are others who make an effort to say hello and brighten them up for a moment. I hope somebody is stopping to talk to my dad too when I am not present to do so. I'm sorry for your loss. Noreen Paradise

“ Thank you so much for your kind words and gesture. He wasn't one to strike up conversations but he loved when he got attn from others. So please know that your saying hi to him and acknowledging him made a big impact and for that we are truly grateful. God bless you and your family.
