“ Craig and I first met as teenagers when the Richey family moved to Painesville, and we shared many good memories as friends during our high school years even though he was at Harvey, and I was at Riverside. I remember Craig's easy laughter and commitment to being a good friend, and I always looked forward to time spent together. In recent years Craig paid a visit to my dad and me in California when he was traveling to LA. My late parents had moved to California from Painesville when they were 70, so it was a treat for both of us to have a wonderful afternoon reminiscing with Craig. Many years had passed in between but the conversation was a continuation of all we had shared. It's hard to believe he's gone, but I am thankful to have known him. Written with wishes for peace for the whole family!
