“ Dale was a wonderful person who helped me through a long spell of unemployment with his steadfast encouragement and friendship. He was a reliable source of interesting, informed conversation and had a courageous spirit with regard to trying and learning new things. He was a light in the world that transcends the mortal coil. He will be missed greatly.

Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine,
cum sanctis tuis in aeternum,
quia pius es.
Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine,
et lux perpetua luceat eis,
quia pius es.

“ Dale was a sweet friend, who always greeted me with "Jobs Hollow!" when my husband, Frank, and I would arrive at Dick's Den. Dale had been to that part of southern Ohio to do research while working at EPA and later discovered that I grew up in the area. We shared many laughs. Dale will be missed.

“ Dale and I shared many experiences, traveling with pipe bands in the U.S., Canada and U.K. I have many great memories of Dale. He added so much fun and humor to my life and many others. His unique wit and charm will be missed. My sincere condolences to all who loved him. Rest in peace Big Brother. May the sound of your drum touch those in heaven, as it did here on earth. -Van

“ Dale and I played together in the Caledonian pipe band in Cleveland Ohio. We started playing the band when we were teenagers in the 60s. We had the opportunity to travel throughout Scotland and England in 1998. A wonderful guy and good friend. R. I. P. Big Dale

“ Hey, Dale,

What do selfish cows from France say?

They say "moi, moi."

Did you think I forgot? Well, I haven't.

I remember when you told me that riddle in German and I thought it was so funny. I remember other corny jokes you told me in German, too. Speaking of which, I've got to brush up on my German. A friend from Frankfurt just sent me a lengthy email yesterday, all in German.

The selfish cows from France are happy that you're enjoying a higher life. So maybe they aren't so egotistical after all. Who knew.

I miss you, Dale. But, as they say, we'll meet again one day.

Your friend,

Leigh

“ So sad to hear the passing of Dale. He and I were in the OSU Army ROTC Pipes and Drums and he taught me the basics of Scottish drumming. He was a very funny guy and was generous with his skills.

“ John & Cyndi: So very sorry to read this sad news. Dale and I were in the Caledonian Pipe Band together when we first met in '68. We were roommates at OSU '70-'72 and also played in the Army ROTC pipe band at Ohio State. Funny, I was just telling a Dale Eicher story this morning. Rest In Peace, my friend.
