“ One time I was putting grease on the garage opener chain track and I was on a ladder next to his car. All of a sudden the panic alarm on his car went off. It startled me. I almost fell poff the ladder. I went into the house and Don and the family were laughing so hard and asked me what happen. Don had set the alarm off. He was hilarious and loved to joke with everyone. He will be sadly missed. Condolences to the family. Rick Evsna
