“ Tom and I have many wonderful memories of time we spent with Frank. We square danced with him at his 90th birthday party and shared many dinners and friendly visits. It was easy to see that he cared about those close to him and to others who benefited from his woodworking talents. We're happy to have seen the wooden praying mantis he built and even happier to have had him in our lives as a friend.

“ Such a sweet gentleman, always seemed to have a smile and a twinkle in his eye. I will fondly remember him as one of the woodshop elves who constructed wooden benches for disabled adults and seniors to use in a local subsidized housing hi-rise. His generosity with his time, skills, and energy made a difference for a lot of people over the years.
