“ Gail was such a loving, caring person. Her daughter Jacquie and my daughters Diane and Carol were friends in school many, many years ago. My memories of Gail, although we lost touch, will always be fond. I was honored to know and love such a good person.
I'll visit her at Lakeview Cemetery, where my husband, Tom Gorgas is in the Mausoleum. Rest in peace, angel Gail.

“ To Cindy and Mindy,
I have to assume that you are the same Cindy and Mindy that lived on Catlin and Highland!
You have been on my mind so often lately. Wondered how you are and know more about you and your lives. So sorry about your Mom.
Please get in touch with me!

“ My condolences to you on the death of Gail. She was for many years a member of our group of friends named the Fried Green Tomatoes. We met at each other's homes for lunch or dinner and had a great time talking and laughing as well as discussing important issues of many kinds. Gail always prepared a delicious meal and laid out her best china when it was her turn as hostess. We have missed seeing Gail in recent years. My thoughts and prayers are with all her family.
