“ Dad

I only had the pleasure of knowing you for a few years. But, you really taught me how to be a caring person like your self. I will miss your smile and humor. I will miss you, but I know you and mom have a lot of catching up to do. Thanks for sharing the time with me.

“ Dad,you were my hero.You showed me how to be a man and how to treat people. you would give whatever you had to people even though it meant you would do without.

I try to live my life the same way.

I love and miss you so much.

“ Dad, one of the hardest things I've had to do was hold your hand while you were leaving. I know you are in a better place,and no longer hurting but my heart is breaking and wishing for more time. You meant so much to so many of us. I look forward to seeing you again. Until then enjoy your reunion with mom and all the others that you lost!

“ I was always happy to see and visit with him, I always left with a smile, he taught me a few colorful things(lol), and some of my best childhood memories involved him, Aunt Ellen, Rene, Loretta, and Jimmy. One of my favorite memories was when he gave my mom and me a ride to Beachwood mall and I didn't want to go in because I thought I wasn't dressed nicely enough, he said, Not one of those people are any better than you....(with a few colorful words) for years I would tell my mom, you remember what Uncle Jim told me! Love You Uncle Jim. RIP
