It is one of the things I will miss about her, among so many others. I am grateful for the time we did have together and proud to have you as part of my family. Love you. Miss you.

“ My baby niece Jessi Ann turned to Jessica Ann Wander Elmore a lovely Caring woman, She always had a smile on her face and she was willing to help anyone with anything. Her faith in the Lord was so strong and her friends and family and people she did not know saw it in her. She loved all her family so much, she was the one that always got family get togethers going. I will miss her sooo much, even now tears are flowing, I do not know why the Lord took her home, we will know the reason when we get there.

All my condolences to Otis and Caleb (if you ever need me call) To my sister Connie and Rich Wander may the Lord give you comfort, Josh and Jordan Wander, (again if you ever want to talk I am here, just call), And Ariel May the Lord give you comfort. and all her good friends thank you for your help and Lord give you comfort.

“ Jess, our beautiful daughter-in-law...I am still in shock that you are gone. Words can not even say how much I loved and still love you. You were the most precious daughter-in-law that anyone could ask for. You were kind, beautiful, loving, generous and truly an angel on earth. Thank you for all the times you lifted me up when I was down and out. I will miss your beautiful smile. I promise I will see that Otis and Caleb are taken care of. Your entire family has been a blessing in our lives. You will be missed more than words can say. I love you Jessie, rest easy until we meet again.
