

Margaret S. (nee Schuerger) Connelly

March 9, 2021

Margaret S. Connelly (nee Schuerger) age 61, passed away on March 9, 2021 after many years of battling a variety of medical issues. Beloved wife of Michael Connelly.

She was known to many as “Our Little Trooper” because of her courageous ability to adapt to the changes and still maintain a wonderful spirit. She inspired many people to be kind, courageous and happy. We would like to thank everyone who made her feel special.

Margaret was the youngest child of the late Raymond and Charlotte (Willson) Schuerger. She grew up in North Ridgeville with five brothers, Fr. Anthony, Robert, Michael, John, Joseph, and her sister, Mary Anne. She attended St. Peter Grade School and Elyria Catholic High School. She met the love of her life at Cleveland State University where she studied Accounting and became a CPA. She was a Partner at Rowland, Connelly, Joyce and Associates. She married Michael Connelly in 1988 and moved to Mentor. Margaret was the glue that kept the family together. She had 14 nieces and nephews whom she loved to invite over for dinners, cookouts, holidays, sporting events, plays, amusement parks and the circus. She was wonderful at remembering everyone’s birthday, sending out Christmas Cards, and giving the best smiles and hugs. She also loved to take family pictures. She was funny and smart and a great card player; she loved to sing and dance; she has many layers. “A companion for life is as true as could be; forever she is helping me to be me. I am grateful for the time that we shared; her kindness and gracefulness will always be there.” Margaret loved the Ballroom Dance Community. Thank you to everyone who has prayed and cared for Margaret.

“ Michael Regis and I are so sorry for your loss of beautiful Margaret. Her smile lit up a room and even with all she had to endure was upbeat and always positive. We will miss her and know she is God's "Little Trooper" now. With sincere sympathy

“ I don't really know where to begin... Aunt Margaret was just the best. She brought the energy and the fun and really cared about each and every one of us! The memories are endless.

We went to so many plays together; I especially remember Beauty and the Beast when we were kids, and others like Wicked and Come From Away, all the way to the awesome seats she got us for The Lion King more recently. We went to games, like the night the Indians hit their 22 game winning streak, my first Cavs playoff game, as well as the many games she and Uncle Mike hosted in their living room. She took us on trips - like to Chicago when Kelly and I were obsessed with American Girl, or skiing at Peek 'n Peak. The crucifix that hangs over my bed was from her and Uncle Mike for my First Communion. She taught us to be the best pinochle players we could be (though no one could beat her!), went to all my school plays, bought me new piano books, visited me when I lived across the state, and cheered me on as I started my teaching career. She kept her fridge covered in family photos, and it was always so fun to look at them and reminisce and see if any new ones were added! (I have a picture of her on my fridge, too.) My favorite recent memory was when we went to the Holden Arboretum, and she climbed all the way up the observation tower, and then we went home and watched Kate and Leopold and ate her delicious lasagna. There are a million memories like that.

Aunt Margaret, I love you so much - thank you for loving us “kids” all our lives. I'm still planning to talk to you all the time. You were everything we could have ever wanted in an aunt on earth; and I know you still love us from heaven.

“ Too much to say, so I'll try to do her justice without rambling.

Aunt Margaret had the joy of a child, the faith of a saint, and the love of a mother. Despite the huge family we never got lost in the crowd, but rather, she had that way of making each of us feel seen, loved, and like the only one in the room.

She often told my mom she thought her life purpose was to be an aunt, and she LIVED IT OUT. It didn't matter what we were up to, she wanted IN!

She taught me to chew gum on my first airplane ride (I swallowed it...oops), cheered at my little tikes soccer games, and helped plan my tea party bridal shower.

She cooked like a chef, and knew exactly what everyone did and didn't like.

She suffered like Christ - she had deep trials with her health but - you would never know it.

She had ALL the stories, she took ALL the pictures, and she had the recall of a wizard or historian.

She would ask about life, and join in with an enthusiastic, "Oh wow! Awesome! You go, girl!"

[At a party or family gathering] she would lean over and tell you one of those keen, creative-wit jokes, and look at you and wait for your expression to catch up...then we would both laugh so hard!

Life is just a blink, but it wasn't enough time. Aunt Margaret brought the party everywhere she went, she showered us with love, and she lit up the room.

Aunt Margaret, I love you SO MUCH, and I am SO GRATEFUL. Keep smiling, laughing, and cheering us on from your cushy seat up above - you earned it!

“ I was fortunate enough to meet Margaret while playing softball in her younger days. She was a great player but she was also an amazing person. She was always fun and caring with an infectious laugh. With all the challenges that life had thrown her way, she never let it stop her. She never dwelled on the negative and always found joy in life. She will be sorely missed and well-remembered.

“ My dearest Margaret. You will be missed so much you made an impression on everyone you met. While I no longer live in Ohio you were always in my thoughts and were my best friend since 3rd grade. You are now at peace and looking down on all of us. Michael, I am so very sad for you but know she is always with you. Wish I could be there with you. Love. Tammy

“ Aunt Margaret was one of a kind. She was fun to be around and always made you feel important and loved. She was a great person to brag about your accomplishments to, or just ramble on about various things with on the phone. Her sense of humor was contagious, and she always down for some silliness. She was one of the strongest people I have ever met, and despite her various health struggles persevered through whatever challenges arose. The marriage and love between her and my Uncle Mike was admirable, and definitely one to emulate. She may be gone off this earth, but her spirit burns brightly in those who knew and loved her. She was a Godly woman, and I know she is being rewarded with paradise and peace with the Lord. I'll carry memories of playing on the playground with you, going to sporting games, shows at the Playhouse, vacation to Disney, holidays, sleepovers and so much more with me forever. She was the best Aunt you could ask for.

“ As we walked the streets of Cleveland on our first date I took her hand and held it as we crossed the street. When we got to the other side I let go of her hand. By the second street crossing I held her hand and never let it go..
