“ Marlene was the first person I met when I walked into Kirtland Christian Fellowship for the first time. She stayed with me that first day and introduced me around which was the start of many relationships. She walked with me when I was losing my mom to Alzheimers. She consoled and encouraged me as I mourned the loss of a part of my mom each day. She spoke truth to me and prayed for me without ceasing.

I can't think of Marlene without remember all the lunches she so generously prepared as she gathered a group of women, of which I was fortunate to be a part. Attendees changed but the spirit of the gathering did not. We shared a meal, we fellowshiped we sang and we prayed and we even danced sometimes. We ministered to one another. We shared such a beautiful time with Shirley Kraska - ministering to her for a season as her dementia overtook her but in those times of worship, we saw God's Spirit was still whole and alive in her. We heard prayers from her mouth that came from the heart of God. We watched her joy multiply as she shared those moments with us and with the Father. For that time together, she was back with us.

Marlene's simple act of preparing some food was so much more than a meal. Marlene, you have taught me what can be accomplished when you open your heart and your home. I choose to do likewise.

See you on the other side!
Love you...Jean
