“ I was a periodontal nightmare when I first landed in her chair at Dr Krecji's practice. Like previous posts, Mary went to work teaching me how to take care of my teeth and gums. I know her instructions saved me a lot of money. I was in awe of how many balls she juggled in her personal life with her husband, her children, in laws, grandkids, and finally her own cascade of health issues. On top of that, she even started dating, and found love again! She came back to work after so many complications, it was always a joy to see her. Obviously, over 44 years as a hygienist she became friends with many of her patients. I wish I had been able to visit, but I have no doubt she was surrounded by love until the end. She was such a proud mom and grandmother. I cried when I saw her obituary, too late to attend the service. May she rest in a well deserved peace.

“ Mary and I met in the 1980's when she became my hygienist for life --- once I was treated by her, I knew no one else would live up to her standards of excellence. She taught me proper flossing (yes, there is a proper way!) And same with her insanely specific use of that little toothpick to finish things off! Fought her on that for years--- and she finally won--never had a problem since then. I stayed with her throughout her working career.

We became good friends over the years, and I value and treasure our time together. How sad it is to lose such a bright and beautiful soul so soon. To her family and all those who were especially close to Mary, my sympathy goes out to each of you. May you Rest In Peace Mary.

Sincerely,
Janet Skryp

“ I am fortunate to have had the wonderful Mary as my dental hygienist for a number of years. I will remember her big, beautiful smile and her contagious good humor. She was incredibly positive in life despite all the things that life threw at her. She loved to sing and during my visits, we talked...too much to be sure...but I knew that she was devastated when her husband died, she was over-the-moon proud of her children and she loved going on trips with her girlfriends.

She was proud to be a (very good and very thorough) hygienist and loved working with the Dr. Krecji team. And, there came a point where she lit up as she talked about Terry and as she shared her life with him. She never complained when I was there and she was surely one of the most upbeat people I have ever known.

Even as just a patient of hers, I do and will miss her. I cannot imagine the heartbreak that you, her family all must endure before you meet her in Heaven. I will say a prayer for her soul but i am sure she and the Lord are already talking about things and laughing. God bless you all and may He keep you strong and healthy.

“ Mary was my hygienist of 25 years. She was the consummate perfectionist! She gave out gold stars for exceptional plaque scores and as an ADULT I felt so proud EVERY time I received one from her because she didn't just give them out. You better scrub and earn it! She was the epitome of what everyone has mentioned and then some! Now Ms Mary has earned her GOLD ! She labors no more. I am so grateful to know she was a woman of FAITH and because of it, I KNOW we will see each other again. Rest easy Mary...

“ Mary was my husband's hygienist for many years and introduced me to her. She had such happiness and a love within her soul. We became friends, and Larry and Mary came to our wedding. She was so caring, that I always made sure I did a good job cleaning, picking and brushing, got a gold star also, for effort and cleanliness. I do miss her smile and enthusiasm for life. Now she is at peace, no more pain and suffering, someday to see her again, she is truly in Heaven. Love you Mary

“ Peace and comfort to you all.
It has been such a blessing that our paths have crossed at this time.
Our Lord really loves and cares for us just when we have a need.
He truly has made this shown here with your family.
It has been comforting to my heart in such a crazy time, to see such a wonderful support system that you all were to each other.
Mary was well cared for even down to the smallest detail.
Every bit you all gave to make her comfortable, she so appreciated.
So, do not ever doubt yourselves.
She had expressed how proud of you all she was and that you were her heart and purpose.
Comforting prayers and peace of heart in the time to come.

“ Mary was beautiful in every way - such a kind heart with a smile that would brighten everyone's day. The Rose Ridge neighborhood of which we were all part was a truly remarkable community which was more of a family, and I will always hold the friendships dear to my heart. Mary was the most unselfish, caring and beautiful person. Rest in peace, my friend.

As some of us have moved out, the Theatre group which Mary was part of has kept those friendships together. Mary and Larry raised three wonderful children. A beautiful smile, laugh and always a kind word. Love you.

“ The loss of Mary hurts more than I can put into words. I have known her since high school and she was an important reason that I became a dental hygienist. She was a generous, kind soul who always put others before herself. My deepest condolences to her family. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ I was in your mother's class at Lakeland for hygiene. I always thought she was beautiful and had the best smile. She added much to our enjoyment of the hard classes we had to endure!! She is my age and I consider her a good person and very giving of herself too. So sorry to learn of her passing. Know my prayers are with your family.

“ Mary was my dentist hygienist when I had to have some surgery and I was so frightened. She held my Hand throughout and was very caring. We had lunch together and once again she was just so very nice. Even though I no longer go to that location I will remember her as a kind, professional lady. She will surely be missed by many. Also, she had the nicest smile. Amie G. Dubs
