

Matthew W. Barnes

January 14, 1966 - March 1, 2020

Matthew W. Barnes, age 54 of Mayfield Heights, died Sunday, March 1, 2020, at David Simpson Hospice House, Cleveland, OH. He was born on January 14, 1966, in Westminster, CA.

Matt earned a Bachelor's degree in Radio/TV/Film from Texas Christian University and worked as a Training and Development Specialist II for University Hospitals Health Systems for 14 years. He believed in excellence and that anything could and should be improved.

Matt was a sports enthusiast and great fan of the TCU Horned Frogs, the Dallas Cowboys, the Cleveland Indians, and the Cleveland Cavaliers. He was an avid gamer and film buff, with special affection for Star Wars. He was known to sprinkle Monty Python and Airplane! quotes throughout conversations. He collected and built numerous Lego creations, a pursuit that is shared by his sons. He loved taking the boys to car shows and air shows, and more recently, to many concerts. Next to his family, music was his greatest passion, and he listened to everything from classical to rock. He enjoyed travel with the family to Hawaii, Alaska, the Grand Canyon, San Diego, the western Caribbean, and Europe. His family believes that many discussions about World War II must be happening in heaven among Matt and his grandfathers and father-in-law.

Survivors include his wife; Aurora Martinez, sons: Steven (Fiancée: Mariah Justice) Barnes and Daniel Barnes, parents: Charles "Chuck" Barnes and Shari Eurich Barnes, siblings: Andrew (Nazeli) Barnes and Susan Lozano and nieces and nephews: John, Anna, Ashlie, Vincent Lee, Monica, and Jazmen, as well as many cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

Preceding Matthew in death is his brother: Steven Barnes.

“ You have my deepest condolences. I am so sorry for your loss. Matt and I became friends in 2003 while working at the OfficeMax HQ in Shaker Heights. We hit it off right away and became friends. Matt and I went to several concerts together, once even driving to Pittsburgh for a concert. He was such a smart, observant and funny guy. I'll remember all of our long lunches to Cleveland Heights and trips to Starbucks. He had such a great laugh and easy going nature. I will miss him greatly.

“ Matt and I shared a fondness for Stephen King novels. When he was working at Borders he got me a copy of Rose Madder before it was even a final edit. When The Stand first aired on TV, I was studying for finals and couldn't watch so he taped it for me so I could see it later. He was funny and smart, and always had a twinkle in his eye. We had a lot of fun when he worked with me at TCU.
