Dear Dick,

The year was 1975 or 1976 and you said you never designed a seafood plant before but that you could do it. That was when we began an architect and client relationship and friendship that lead to our new facility opening in Mentor in 1977. You were right, you designed a great place for us. You were a very calm person during the construction while I was just a little nervous. Everything worked out .

We spoke just this summer to catch up for a few minutes and had a great visit.

Thank you again for a great design and building.

May you rest in peace.

“ One afternoon, when I worked for dad, he ask me if I wanted to go to "Hoffman's House of stereo, dad knew the owner, Dick was an avid audiophile, anyway we were like kids in a "candyshop" i would not call myself an audio nut, but I do like me stereo loud ! He found a set of speakers, ESS Super guads and dads friend hooked them up, & wow, they were awesome. So dad buys them, load them into the caravan & drive back to the office, This is when we lived on little Mountain and dad had his office downstairs , Kim & I, lived upstairs. So dad tells me on the ride back to the office that Mom can never know about this purchase ! ok I say. So dad says we will set them up, upstairs in your place for now until the right time to spring it on mom. Well over next few days , dad provides some old vacuum tube amps etc.... and if u know what electrostatic speakers are you would know what I'm talking about. I would set up late at night & listen to music & hear things I have never heard before. give me chills just thinking about it. Well christmas comes, we are all at mom & dad's opening gifts, when it came around to my turn, kim slide a big box in front of me & I start to open it & there is a bunch of wrapping inside & another gift wrapped box, well that went on a few more boxes, till I get to a very tiny box, everybody was laughing at me & I open this little box, inside is a little note that says " The speaker are yours" my jaw hit the floor, I think I almost cried !! Kim gave her dad like 7 or 8 hundred dollars" just to say I was blown out of the water, and dad just gave me that look !! like "welcome to the club". sometimes I would come home & dad would be upstairs in my chair listening to classical music, just diggin the hell out of it !! Dad, you will be missed !! i hope we will see each other again, until then,,,,,,,,,Bubba

“ Richard made me feel at home very first time we met in 1967. He is warm and loving. We had so many wonderful things happen over the years it is hard to choose one. You were always there for me when I had questions or concerns about Uncle Michael. I can't say thank you enough. Both he and your mom taught you to all be loving and kind. You are all Richard and Joans legacy. They are dancing and smiling in heaven when they look down at you. Sorry I missed the services. Love. Aunt Candy
