“ Sam, Toots, Dad, Grandpa Bando. I will always remember him for his kindness and understanding ~he never stopped treating me, respecting me, loving me....as family. He extended this acceptance to my husband and family. I will be forever grateful and he will always have a special place in my heart.
His quick wit and friendly nature brought smiles to many. His old-school know-how and handyman skills benefited countless others. So many happy memories of family picnics, playing 13 (what's wild now?!), and oh how he loved his grandkids~tractor rides, lessons at the pool table, bunnies, playhouses, puppies....all for the grandkids! Lessons taken from his long life: Be kind. Help others. Share your gifts. Keep your sense of humor. Love unconditionally.

He is so loved and greatly missed. May he Rest in Peace.
