“ Ted was choir director when I was the associate at Mentor UM Church. Always professional and prepared. Gifted leader and musician. His contributions to choral music in Ohio were more than substantial. He will be missed. May the alchemy of time soften the harsher edges of his family's grief until happier memories prevail

“ The best part of my day was in the music wing with Choir, Theory and Top 25. He was a wonderful Mentor and a wonderful musician. Mr. H made such a difference for so many of us. Many of his students went on to careers in Music and many had successful careers because of his influence. He is leading the Heavenly Choir now. God Bless his Family at this difficult time.

“ So sad to learn of the passing of Ted. Ted and Jane were such a vital part of Heidelberg's campus, even back to when we first attended the college. It was always a positive light to see them when I would return to the campus for any event. Ted will be missed more than words can say. My sincerest sympathies to Jane and her family.

“ What can you say when someone who was such an integral part of your high school experience has passed away. Ted Hieronymus was so much more than a Choir Director, Teacher and mentor. Top 25 and music WAS high school for me (along with so many others). The memories will live on and I hope the Hieronymus family knows what an impact Mr.H had on so many young lives.

“ We join your family in heartfelt sadness on the death of Ted. He was a wonderful person and friend.
Our 4 children were honored to be in the top 25 their 4 years in Mentor High School. He was a very important influence on them. Our Laurie also chose to attend Heidelberg University and both of our girls are still music teachers.

Ted led a Christ centered life and was a wonderful Husband to Jane and Father to their children . We know that there is Hope in the Resurrection and our prayers are with your family.

“ My condolences to his family and his brother Lee. Ted was a friendly, supportive person to everyone he met even to all of us in high school at Miamisburg. Although, in boy scouts, he did not build the biggest fire in his dad's backyard! I will miss him and his mom too.

“ Mr. H was a gifted musician. I enjoyed taking choir during my years at MHS and I'm so sorry I won't be able to be there in person to tell his family what fun it was to learn and perform with him.

Missy Nightengale - March 20 at 02:27 PM

“ Ted was a senior, I was a freshman at Heidelberg. We met in the choir and he took on the task of teaching me how to really sing!. I was afraid of him then. We had many moments that year, mostly around the choir, the music, and helping me figure it out. Fast forward to 2000, I become a member of the HC board. Ted joins and we have a completeley different adult relationship, but he never quite lost that aura of subtle control and vision.

I am sorry I can't be there to send you off on the next leg of your eternal journey, but I , along with countless others, will be forever grateful of the solid human being you were.

“ It is hard to put into words the enormous impact Mr. H. had on some may aspects of my life. From the wonderful memories of choir, the concerts and trips to perform in so many places. But what I'll always remember fondly were the many hours spent working Mentor Relays and other track meets. From a student volunteer, to an adult worker so many years later, all you recall are the good times, the smiles and laughs and not the hard work. And then getting to him on a more personal level , hearing his stories, things you never knew as a student, realizing what a remarkable individual he was. I feel truly blessed he was a part of my life.

We were so sorry to hear about Ted's passing. We will miss his daily trips in the gator to visit and talk at Piedmont. He always had some good stories and never an ill word toward anyone. “ I was so sad to learn of Mr. H's passing. What a deep loss to so many, but what memories, and what a legacy! High school Acapella choir was a place of light and refuge for me, as it refueled me with joy and the will to get through the rest of my day. My faith was always strengthened through the lyrics of the sacred and beautiful songs that we sang, and I was always inspired by Mr. H's intense passion for excellence. It was always balanced by a healthy balance of humor, and that flip of his tie over his shoulder coupled with a screwed up face when we sang less than on pitch. Many teach, but few inspire a love that lasts a lifetime. Music of all kinds have become some of my best and life long friends, and all thanks to a man who introduced me so many years ago. I am very grateful to have had the opportunity to be taught by one of the best.

Rest now on that high mountain good and faithful servant. I look forward to singing with you again in another time and another place. -Peggy Wheeler

“ Mr. H. as he was also known to many of us was my choir director in Acapella Choir back in '77-78. He was a very dedicated person and cared greatly in whatever he did. We went on tour to Grand Blanc Michigan, and also Philadelphia PA. Had exchange concerts, and was on local television at Christmas time. We also made an album. I still have mine. It was called: "You Will be My Music ". He was a great humane being and I will miss him greatly. ;-(

“ Mr H was the "Vince Lombardi" of Vocal Music in NE Ohio and through his gifts as a teacher... he taught us about life, character, discipline and execution... he was a mentor, adviser and visionary... who leaves behind a legacy with hundreds of students at MHS.. I was lucky and blessed to have had him in my life for a short time as a member of the Top 25. May he rest in peace and sweet harmony.

“ Words cannot express what Mr. H meant to me, and how his expert tutelage changed my life. He inspired me to become a music teacher myself, and I have tried to honor him in my expectations with my own students, always pushing for excellence, which I learned from him. His presence in so many young lives is a precious gift, and we are all so saddened by this loss. My heart goes out to Mrs. H and family, as you deal with the grief and sadness. He is at peace, and hearing (and possibly directing) heavenly music for all of eternity. Blessings and love to all. Cheryl (Black) Jackson Class of 1983.

“ I had the pleasure of being in his choirs all 3 years i was at Mentor High (1983-86). We were always well-prepared and had fun. He was very talented in his own right, and sharing his talent in leading us to great performances. I learned at an early age what it takes to prepare for a public performance and how to handle a spotlight, no matter how big or small. He leaves behind an amazing legacy of teaching and excellence. My thoughts and prayers go his wife Jane and his family at this difficult time. May his grace be a comfort to all.

“ I am deeply grateful for all that I learned under Mr. H. He pushed us all to become better musicians and collaborators; he expected the absolute best from us, which made us want to please him and learn what it means to be committed to a craft. I did not look to him to be my father figure or to be nurturing. I needed him because he didn't simply settle for our being “very good”; he wanted us to be epic, which is what I wanted for myself. Thank you, Mr. H., for your passion and dedication, for giving us all a sense of what is important and worthy of our attentions as teenagers and rising adults. Your gift lives on in all of us. “ Love and light to the Hieronymous family. A Cappella Choir was the highlight of my school day during all my high school years (unless we had to sing a part solo because our section just couldn't get it right!)... to this day, songs we performed will just randomly come to mind...but the Hallelujah Chorus will forever be a favorite. Mr. H. leaves behind a musical legacy to behold.

“ Dear Jane and Family. I am pretty confident that none of us who were students under "Mr. H" had any clue of the caliber of music and training that we received under this man's direction. It was only later in life that I would hear a piece of music and say to myself, Oh My Goodness!, we sang that piece in high school when in acapella choir or Top 25 so many years ago. To this day, I cannot attend any concert where the Hallelujah Chorus is sung without tearing up at the wonderful and fond memories we all have of being exposed to this man of tremendous greatness. How blessed we all were and are to have known this man. And now we all live on in the legacy he gave us. I wish I could be there to see you all and to see so many high school friends. Our prayers are with you and your family as you grieve the loss of Mr. H.

“ I'll never be able to truly put into words the indelible impression Mr. H made in my life. He taught with an intensity and wisdom that was inspiring. He was dedicated to his profession and expected us to be diligent in our pursuit of excellence. He instilled a curiosity in us all and a love of great music. Being in Top 25 from 1982-1984 and in mixed chorus and a cappella choir for three years with him was the highlight of my high school years. I used to feel sorry for other choirs from other schools when we would perform or compete because the music we sang was so complex in comparison to other schools. He taught us so much, and along the way shared his knowledge and sense of humor. "Don't just stand there and contemplate your navel." - one of his ways of telling students to focus. Thank you for sharing him with us and for your choreography and kindness along the way. How blessed we all have been to know him and your family. My singing with Cleveland Opera and beyond was because I studied with this great man in high school.

Amy Zivkovich class of 1984 - March 16 at 11:26 PM

“ I only joined the choir at MHS in order to be in a class with my friends, but Mr. H turned this self-appointed alto into a soprano and opened my eyes and my heart to the finest music this side of heaven. Three years in his choirs and two years in Top 25 developed in me not only a love for music, but also a desire to bring the best out of myself. He taught us how to work as a team, how to improvise when things went wrong, and how to revel in the joy when things resonated perfectly. He could gather the attention of 120 students with a single raised eyebrow and his smile was all the praise we needed for a job well done. He made us want to work hard, but he also made us laugh. I have been blessed and am truly grateful to have had Mr. H in my life.
