“ My heart is heavy for this loss. I always remember when I came to the Lia House to visit you would always come by, hug me and say "Hi Mom". We never know the struggles that others face. I pray that you are at peace now and that the good memories are the ones that your family and friends will hold close to their hearts. Safe home to you Tyler!

“ Tyler I don't even know where to begin. I'm wishing this was just a bad dream. I just talked to you. I should have asked how you “really” were doing. You were one of my very best friends these last 4 to 5 years. I wish I would have made the trip up to see you more. I can't believe I can't talk to you right now. Man I'm going to miss you so much. You had so many people that loved you and you had your whole great life ahead of you and you just couldn't see it. I'm so sorry bro. I love you!!!

“ I knew Tyler very well in his younger years. He spent many days at our house hanging out with my son Cody. We would call Tyler Cody's big brother. Tyler's smile and laugh were infectious. The world has lost a very kind soul. I am so very sorry for your loss. sending prayers to the entire Koshiol Family.

“ When a guy wouldn't leave me alone at our after prom party, Tyler literally picked him up and escorted him out of the house. We weren't even really friends. He was just nice and he saw what was going on. He was a good hearted and funny guy. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing and of his condition. Sending love to his family, friends,
