“ Skipp, my friend and classmate, Champion 1962 and Ohio University, you went much too soon...condolences to your family Ohio friends. Memories of our college summers are still very clear...the trips to the Belvadere, crusin' McDonalds, perusing the magazines at the book shop on the Square...as are the OU memories...including trips home on holiday breaks in my 1962 Volkswagen Bug stuffed to the gills. And our subsequent occasional corresponding from my home here in Maryland over the years and reunions about Bluegrass and country music, oldies, your and other's radio careers, your hosting of entertainment venues, Champion days, and more. The communication is sadly gone now, but the great memories remain. RIP old friend. Skipp, we had our great times in Champion, Warren, and Athens, which live on as strong memories.

“ Maynor Family,
Our deepest sympathy for your loss.
Your in our thoughts and prayers.
We will remember Jeff's kind and gentle spirit. Was such a fan of his on any station. Always enjoyed starting my Saturday mornings watching him on channel 3, until his retirement.

“ I so hated to hear the news.

Skip and I went way back to Ohio University. He was a good student talent at WOUB and grew to be a super good TV news talent.

We worked together at WJW and then I tried to convince him to be the anchor at my station in Columbus. That didn't work out but I used his live shot work as a teaching tool in all my stops in the TV news business. He was the best I've ever worked with at live.

As we both got older our connection became hours long phone calls where we solved broadcasting's problems, the world's problems and longed for the return of rock and roll radio's glory days.

Skip was one of a kind. Glad I got to know him and work with him.

Keep rock-in on up there big guy.

“ Jeff Maynor was a best friend, a true mentor, musicologist and lover of jingles and news music. A great reporter who always told a great story. We could talk for hours about the old days of radio and TV and anything else about broadcasting that others might find trivial. You will be missed Jeff.

“ Keith and I were sorry to hear of his passing. I grew up in Champion and am a friend of his sister, Laura. I recall the last time we saw Skip and Patsy at Cinevent in Columbus. We enjoyed a meal with them. We talked about life in and around Champion. Skip enjoyed tales of Keith's younger days traveling with his parents who had worked in a circus.

“ To The Maynor Family, Jeff "Skip" from Champion Ohio....truly left a legacy for many people of all lifestyles....the little boy with an advanced hairstyle of a Mohawk did excellent with his life. I can't say it any better that Jeff had charisma and such intriguing intelligence. Jeff could talk for hours about a subject as he was the most knowledgeable person that I have ever known....Jeff was a Man in the public eye.....but not a arrogant person.....truly a man of kindness and compassion....Jeff loved his family and his work....its amazing that he never wrote a book with all the people he knew and interviewed... and loved the movie Anchorman....he stated that the movie was truly his life and he could have written the movie himself....Jeff Maynor made this Cleveland area proud....as he will be truly and sadly missed...and as Jeff would state when the going gets tough "Nobody said that it would be easy!" Thank you for all your words of wisdom....as Heaven and the Angels welcomes one of the very Best....God Bless Jeff Maynor may you rest in peace

“ Skipp and I were grade school sweethearts who kept our friendship strong after his family moved from southern WV back to Ohio by writing pages and pages of letters over the years. We supported each other through the trials of our teen years and continued to stay in touch until his death, even though we both married and raised families. He was destined for broadcasting as he often gave imagined news reports or sports play by plays from his seat behind me in grade school. Good bye dear friend. We had a very special bond, and I will never forget you.

“ Judy, you did have a special bond, and Skipp thought the world of you and Blake. He loved that he stayed connected to you, Ham, and the friends of his childhood in Mullens. He'd tell me about every trip “home” — who he saw, who he had long conversations with, the events he attended. The town and the people in it had a special place in his heart.

“ I worked with many outstanding broadcast journalists during almost 40 years in television, but none better and most less committed to quality than Jeff. We co-anchored award-winning WJW-TV newscasts for most of the '70s and Jeff brought quality and professionalism to every 'cast. RIP partner. “Fade to black.....”. Jim Hale Philadelphia, PA

“ Thank you, Jim. A lovely tribute from someone whose friendship he treasured....

Laura Maynor - July 31 at 05:23 PM

“ I worked with Jeff as his director over the years, at WOUB-TV in Athens, WKBN-TV in Youngstown, and on the award-winning #1 newscast in Cleveland, WJW-TV (first as City Camera News, then Newscenter 8). I agree with you, Jim, in your thoughts about Jeff RIP, friend...Gary Changnon, Bay Village, OH

“ Jim Hale, Maynor always mentioned you and Ron Bilek from those days at WJW. He thought the best of you guys.

David Sharp - August 08 at 10:51 AM

“ Saddened by this news. I first met Jeff when I was the DJ at the old "Scandals" nightclub at the Ramada Inn Wickliffe in the early 70's. He and Jim Hale (news co-anchor), Jim Mueller (sports anchor) and once in a while Dick Goddard (weather guru) would drop by after their newscast. Became friends ever since. Class act, warm, caring, humble, loving father and husband, always willing to offer advice to me as my radio career was just beginning. Interviewed him and the guys on the air at the old WELW 1330am a few times. We'd run into each other all around town over the years and I'd see him doing a "live shot" somewhere and stop to talk. He was gracious enough to be a guest trivia host one night at the Mentor City Fest a few years ago when I spotted him in the crowd and called him up to the stage."Skipp". as he liked to be called, will be missed.

“ Patsy, I am not sure if you would remember Steve, but he worked with you at the high school I believe. Steve passed away in 2018, but I wanted you to know how sorry I am for you loss. Kerri Heller
