

Aase (Borup) Schoyen

August 29, 1928 - February 7, 2014

"Together Again"

Aase (Borup) Schoyen, 85, of Painesville, beloved daughter, wife, mother, grandmother and friend, passed away Friday Feb. 7, 2014 at home surrounded by her daughters after a most valiant, but short battle with cancer on the day that would have been her 61st anniversary.

Mrs. Schoyen was born August 29, 1928 in Eidsvoll, Norway. She spent much of her childhood in Norway. At age 17 she and her mom joined her dad in Brooklyn, N.Y. She finished high school in Brooklyn and went on to obtain her Bachelor's Degree from Hunter College in NY.

She married her childhood sweetheart from Norway (Per) in Brooklyn in 1953. They lived for many years on Staten Island, New York City, prior to moving to Painesville in 1975. She worked for many years in banking – as head teller, then branch manager and treasurer. She was also known as "Ann" for simplicity at work. In her youth she enjoyed skiing and many outdoor activities. More recently she was an avid reader and sports fan, especially soccer. She loved to follow all activities involving her grandchildren and enjoyed spending time with her family. She had a constant companion in her dearly beloved dog, Dolly. She was active in life and kept in contact with several of her friends as much as possible. She also regularly corresponded with her friends and relatives in Europe. She is already so missed by all those that knew and loved her.

Survivors include her daughters, Grete (Errol) Dengler of Concord Twp., and Dr. Carol (Dr. Mark) Schoyen of Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada; grandchildren, Jason Dengler of Burbank, Calif., Kristen Dengler of Concord Twp., Alyssa Marohn and Jessica Marohn both of Langley, British Columbia, Canada. Preceding Aase in death were her husband, Per A. Schoyen; and parents, Oluf and Jessy (Jelstad) Borup.

A memorial service will be 11 a.m. Monday, Feb. 17, 2014 at Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave. Mentor. The family will receive friends from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday Feb. 16, 2014 at the funeral home. Inurnment will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Painesville.
