“ There are so many memories I cherish of Adam. As a student in my elementary class, I could count on Adam to say the fun thing which would bring along the kids who were not engaged in learning. He was so very valuable to have in my class to make things click and work. I have been in touch with Adam on facebook some and have treasured the comments and recipes he has shared as an adult. We have lost one of the special people in our world. My heart is with his family as they traverse this difficult time. May you find peace.

“ Adam was a light in so many people's lives and I consider it such an honor to have known him. Every memory I have had with Adam were nothing but positive and joyful, and the passion he carried with him was inspirational. He was such an amazing person with a kind soul and was unafraid to spread it around. My deepest condolences to his family, he will be deeply missed.

“ The memories I have of Adam are plentiful and all full of laughter and joy! He was the life of the party! He made work a little bit sweeter with his delicious recipes and his kind heart. I appreciate every moment he took to help me with recipes or give me tips on nutritional supplements or just share something silly to make me laugh. Kind and fair are two things that come to mind when I think of Adam. My deepest condolences to Angela and his children. He will be missed dearly.

“ So many memories. From late nights working on the car in your parents garage. To going out to car shows. Playing splinter cell. Talking about cars and what we would do if we could mod anything. Wish our friendship continued on and we never had a falling out like we did. I really missed you in my life. Recently getting reacquainted was a wonderful thing. You were an amazing man. Great father and husband. You will be severely missed man. You were one of my best friends since graduating high school in '04. So many more memories we have besides ones listed, ill keep those for myself. Ill miss you man.
