“ Adam was a wonderful man. A great family man whose love for his family was evident. I fondly remember those days when he would visit Mike at Wooster and have some fun with the boys. It was always enjoyable to see him through the years. Always upbeat and glad to see us. A really nice man with a tremendous family. Adam will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

Bowling with Adam for many years will always be a fond memory I'll cherish. He always expected you to roll a strike and made sure you knew about it if you didn't! Missing a spare was even worse!!! Lol!!! I count those days of comraderie among the highlights of my own life. You will be remembered fondly Adam!
