“ Alan and I were very good friends. He was always there for me, to help me out at my Kile Road home and listen to my problems. We spent many an afternoon riding our horses together, always having a great time. His horse, King, whom he loved, even spent sometime at my place which made it very easy for Alan and I to be together. I remember him riding his bike to Twin Pine Stables from Mayfield Hts., and back, so he could ride with me and get some great exercise. I have not seen much of him since he lost King, but he has always been in my thoughts and I am so glad for the time I spent with him.

Love,
Michelle Sheliga
