“ In my short tenure with Progressive, Al made a dramatic impact on me both personally and professionally. Al was a straight shooter who had Progressive's interests in mind. He had a lot of knowledge, as well as, understanding of the Progressive's process and culture. This experience and dedication is going to be hard to replace. As you all know, Al was a fighter in both his personal and professional life, and I am going to miss his support and direction.

“ I'm very grateful that we got to visit Al over a week ago and share a pizza meal with him. I didn't know Al that well, but he was always very kind, pleasant and mild mannered to be around and am proud that he and his family became a member of ours.

“ The office will never be the same without my Bossman. Will miss hearing his cackle and sense of humor. Just glad to know he is no longer suffering. Many tears were shed on Tuesday, even heaven shed some tears, but the day ended with the most incredible rainbow I have ever seen. I believe that was Al's gift to us, telling us not to cry but remember the happy times, smile and laugh. Theresa and Aven - Thank you for taking such good care of him. You are both amazing. RIP Bossman, you'll forever be in my heart.
