“ *Lexi,
I remember the day you were born. Everyone in our family was so excited! We watched you grow up from a little girl with pigtails to a beautiful young women. Even with all the challenges you faced from day one, you were the strongest and bravest person I have ever met!
I will miss your sweet smile, and the hugs you gave me every time I saw you. So many happy memories that I will hold in my heart.
Today is going to be hard for everyone. However, this is not goodbye, it's until we meet again.
Fly high sweet angel. 🙏
Love you, Aunt Kathy*

“ From the day you were born you faced an uphill battle and you climbed and climbed to become such a great person. Biggest ❤️ heart a girl could have. Beautiful, kind, didn't judge anybody ❤️ Because you knew people all have their own issues. Love you for that kiddo. I will miss your smile and laughter. Heaven definitely gained an angel 🙏. P.S. I hope you got to meet Great Grandma Herman. She was the best ❤️

Couldn't have said it any better. ❤️
I had that thought about Grandma too. You know she grabbed her right up and gave her one of the biggest hugs.

MY

So did Bobby with open arms! Lexy & I would sing together in the car. I was taking all my grandbabies to the zoo. Lexy would always ask to put the music on. Two of her favorites songs at the time were-One Republic "It's to late to Apologize" or Hoobastank "The Reason". She had the voice of an Angel. We sang all the way to the zoo. Now she can sing with the Angel's in heaven. You are missed tremendously!❤️
