“ I was beyond shocked and saddened upon hearing of Alison`s passing. We worked together at CECOMS for several years. She was a great person,employee, friend and a sincere pleasure to work with. We have been out of touch since I left CECOMS. Upon reading the obit, I was so very happy to see that she got married, had a child and became an OSP trooper. I bet she was great at that job too. You left way too soon Alison. I trust that you are with our Lord now and that you will be able to watch over your family. Someday you will all be together again. In addition to Alison, I had the honor to work with her mother Jeanne. I believe Alison had the best Mom a girl could have. My heart goes out to you my dear friend. It`s not right to lose a child. It`s out of order, parents are supposed to be taken before their children. But, only God knows why. I pray that our dear Lord will be with you and family at all times and provide some level of peace and comfort during this unbearable time.

May God Bless,
Murray Withrow
