“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Aquila family. We have so many fond memories of Andy. He always was willing to help you out. Thirty one years ago he helped move us into our home in Geneva with our family. What a fun time we had. Lots of laughs. He loved his family very much, always wanted to have a family reunion with all the cousins. Sadly there were just a few. Rest in peace Andy. We love you and will miss your kind loving spirit.
Love cousins Natalie & Pete
