“ My name is Sandy Montez Gerhardt, I live in Norfolk, Virginia and am a long time friend and work colleague of his sister, Susan (Sue). Neither one of us is from Virginia and have no family here so we have made our own family her in Norfolk. They say Friends are the family you pick, ours is wonderful. Susan and I speak often about our family's, our siblings and of course our grandchildren!! 😊. I feel as though I have met the Cianfaglione family we speak so often about our far away relatives.

I would like to send my condolences to Bill's children and family. Bill's passing occurred so quickly I am sure that many in the Cianfaglione family can't comprehend the enormity of his being gone. Remember the good times, memories are yours forever, keep them close to your heart. He is in heaven with no pain. God Bless Bill and the Cianfaglione Family. Susan, you know I have said a rosary and your brother is on my prayer line... 🙏❤️

“ Uncle Bill, we miss you like crazy already! It's not fair that such a talented, caring & amazing person had to leave us so soon 😞
You were an awesome father, grandpa, grandson, brother, nephew, cousin, friend & excellent uncle & great-uncle! You always had time to love, care for, help & teach your family! We've all learned from you. And I've always admired you.
I hope you are riding your Harley down Heaven's highways with endless sunshine upon your face, & freedom in your hair! May God wrap you in peace & love always. Ride on.....Ride on. You're free at last!
Rest easy & fly with the angels. I love you!❤️

“ Bill, I am forever grateful that you came into my life. Thank you for all the memories, that I will cherish. Never thought I would be saying goodbye, so soon. Time cut us to short.
God must have needed, a great gardener. For he created that ability, into you.
Thank you for being a wonderful father, to your children, and to my sons, and to our beautiful Grandchildren, whom I will always keep your memory alive within them, Papa! You will never be forgotten. They all love you dearly,as I will always love you!
Until we meet again one day, may you, Rest In Peace.
Love Sherry
