“ Uncle Andy: Thanks for being such a wonderful Uncle, and for all the great memories, especially my summer vacations as a young boy at your and Aunt Carole's house, swimming in Lake Erie, golfing with you including a few 19th holes when I grew older, watching Indians games on the back patio and talking about our beloved Steelers. I will forever cherish each of them and so many other great times with you. We will miss you always, but hope you enjoy your fairway to heaven. Love always, Frank and Truc

“ Most heartfelt condolences as we are grieving but also remembering the great man and veteran that was and always will be our Uncle Andy. He will be, forever in my mind, the man who loved to talk sports and play catch with his dogs.
