“ I have wonderful memories of Aunt Ann, especially as a teenager growing up in Cleveland. We lived next door to her and Uncle Fiore on Malvern Road a lifetime ago and before they moved to Willoughby. Before I entered the U. S. Air Force, my mom, dad, sister Dee and I used to visit every other week. Aunt Ann was always so gracious and loving toward us. While Uncle Fiore, dad and I sat at the kitchen table and played three-hand pinochle, she would watch us for awhile and always encourage me because I was learning and she knew that I hated to play against either Uncle Fiore or dad - this game requires that you "set" or not allow whomever bid to make their bid amount. She would always bring us snacks while we played. Since I made a career of the military, I was not able to visit very much, but thankfully a few years ago I was able to have a wonderful and heartfelt visit with her and Uncle Fiore one last time. They will forever remain alive and loved in our hearts and souls. Your loving nephew Albert from San Antonio.
