“ Louise, you will be greatly missed. I sat in front of you the first day I attended our church in 1999. I didn't know who you were, but you later told me that you prayed for me and that you knew God would change my life that day. Well, He did. You told me that God spoke to your heart when I was sitting there. I remember you telling me this story years ago and how I was greatly moved by your unconditional love. Glory to God that you now rest in the presence of Jesus. Hallelujah!

We will always love and miss you, Louise and look forward to seeing you again.
