“ I am blessed to have Anne Fitzgerald as my Aunt. So many times I went to her broken and wounded and she pointed me back to God and steadied me on my feet. When I was a runaway she look me in. When I came for dinner she always fixed my favorite meal, leftover roast beef in rich gravy on buttered fried noodles. I know I would not have made it this far without her constant love. As I told Uncle Nelson Saturday, she is the only woman that modeled unconditional steadfast love to me. She was everything I have ever wanted to be. And she forever change my life. She challenged me continuously. When we adopted a sibling group and I met her for lunch, I knew she would probe my feelings. Through her probing and wisdom I realized that what I felt was God's call on my life and with that call I could endure the difficult years that followed.

I will miss her so much in my life but I rejoice that I will be reunited in Heaven with her and so many other loved ones. I am blessed.

Thank you for your kind words. Mom struggled with Alzheimer's for the past 8 years. She would be so proud of how her family worked together and covered her with love! We are blessed to have such a wonderful example of a Godly woman.

“ I have so many childhood memories of Aunt Anne and our family get togethers on Nelson Lane, in Willoughby Hills. Aunt Anne was a very inspirational person in my life, my love of reading, my love of the outdoors and love of family history comes from her. There will always be a very special place in my heart for my dear Aunt Anne.
