“ Dearest Uncle Bill, Billy, Bobby, Debbie, David and Lori (this is how I always talk about you) and of course your spouses, children and grandchildren. We have the BEST memories of Aunt Anne from all the wonderful years you lived on Croxall Avenue. So many sleepovers and picnics and just general shenanigans of being lucky enough to live so close to all our awesome cousins. Aunt Anne was the sweetest of the sweet and it was so fun to tease her! She always had the best desserts and the kindest words and we felt her love every time we were with her. Thank you for sharing your Mom with us. My heart is broken for you all. God Bless your Mom and may she rest in peace, and may you have the peace of knowing that in the sad days ahead, your memories will and love for each other will see you through. Love, Nancy Lynn (Kanfoush) Pritt
