“ Audrey was a nursing school classmate, and beloved friend for over 50 years.

She was smart and funny and brave. We didn't see each other often, but when we did it was like no time had passed. We touched base regularly in the past year. She was courageous and Faith filled. She was one of the few people in my life who always called me Kathleen, rather than Kathie. I'm going to miss that, and miss her. My sincere condolences to her family and the many friends who loved her too.
