“ My greatest childhood memories are of being at the house in Perry with the whole family gathered around the gigantic dinner table. I loved when we visited granny and grampa. I also really enjoyed the barbershop quartet concerts held at Lakeland. The harmonies would lock me in. I sure hope the vocal talents of granny and my mother are passed on to my girls.
I love you granny. We'll meet again some sunny day!

So good to hear Barb sing. I sang in a quartet with her for many many years and was able to do the same for about an hour a few weeks ago. Barb sang a perfect baritone to lots of our old quartet songs. It was great to sing with her and see her so happy to be quarteting again. She was one of the greatest blessings of my life.

Her singing is beautiful. It is so hard to lose a parent. Our prayers are with you until you see her again.
