“ I am so sorry. I was typing a tribute but it somehow disappeared. I met Bernie and members of her family many years ago in Mentor Ohio. The very best and classiest people ever. I was her optician for years until I moved to Florida. I know she will be greatly missed by all who ever knew her, including the staff at Ladies & Gentlemen, and her very dear friend, Nancy Brown. I know Bernie is RIP right now and enjoying her new life style.

Sincerely,
Sylvia Dodson

“ Bernard, Mary, Dwight, John and all of your families: my sincerest sympathy. I have so many wonderful memories of my sweet Godmother Aunt Berni...big family dinners, hanging out at the Prouty house, so many fun times growing up with her. She always had the biggest smile and the kindest words...and especially her laughter...she always made everyone happy around her. My prayers are with all of you. Love, Cheri & Dave Milan
