“ I was honored to be Bev's hairstylist for 30+ years. Through all the milestones of our lives, somehow Bev could make a funny story out of any situation. And we would just laugh and laugh... Thank you Bev for reminding me always to never take Life too seriously, because things just have a way of working out. You will be missed. Godspeed you Home

“ Kent and Bev could talk on the phone for a long time as they discussed their common love of birdwatching, which was passed down to them from their father. When she was able, Bev never forgot to send a card for almost every occasion. She was a gracious and lovely lady who was loved by all who knew her.
