“ Brad, man the feelings going through me. I truly believe God brought us together to show a tiny smidge of not only our potential with our business we created, but how true best friendship should work. I considered you literally family. I posted some of pictures of when we first joined up and created W & W Property solutions. The trust and friendship we had for a few years was something i never experienced. Every single day i wish you found your way back onto the straight path, we did great things, i couldnt imagine where we would be now, Seeing my son grow up, meeting your daughter you were making so much headway with. I hate this disease, but i truly am grateful for the time we had. I will always love you like a brother. Rest in Heaven, I know you are watching over us now. Love and miss you forever brother.
