“ I've known Brian for well over 15 years. He was a great father to the boys and was good to his wife Sondra. I can't imagine how any of you are feeling but my heart breaks for you. Just know that he is always here in one way or another, just keep your eyes open for the little things each day. He will be looking out for you with all of the love he had for his family. Brian always had a great sense of humor and was a great ball player. He never resisted the urge to crack a joke at your expense but it was all out of love and forever hysterical. He could also beat Sondra & I in a softball game any day of the week despite our elite training with the mentor girl softball league. I have nothing but fond memories with him and am sending my love to your family. Rest in Peace Brian.

“ Brian was sweet, open-hearted, open-handed, and funny. He was an excellent dad who loved to play with kids and a loving partner to Sondra. He was a loving brother who filled Amanda's heart with joy. I spent time with him when he came to Amanda's home for holiday celebrations and cook-outs and what I remember most is the laughter that made my sides ache and the basketball competitions between him and Matthew. Once the ball appeared we knew we were in for an hour of boundless energy and friendly rivalry. Gone too soon and remembered fondly always.
