“ Do we write here among the pages to ease our own hearts or to place kind words here to encourage strength in the ones Brian has left behind? Maybe it is a little of both. He was most certainly an Offi, as Debbie will surely agree. Filled with pride and courage, a love for life itself and never willing to take no for an answer nor back down from anything he had started or joined in on. What an ability he had to make you laugh. Can't we all just close our eyes and hear that raspy laughter ringing in our ears!! Achieving success in life is to not be forgotten . You made it Brian for you will continue to come to us with the sound of each passing Harley.

Success oh yes!

“ Brian was the Son of my Boss and good Friend, Donald Offi (deceased). Brian used to come to the office to visit with his dad, and was at the home for Family functions with his dad, Don, and his StepMom, Eileen. He and Debbie had lots of GOOD Friends, I'm sure Brian will be missed. RIP Brian, your Dad and Brother are waiting to see you again .

“ I met Brian thru Debbie who was my coworker. Brian was always funny and made me smile & laugh. Brian also sold Joe a nice car from his lot.
Brian loved to ride his motorcycle I am so glad he got the bike he wanted and got to use it a lot before he got sick. We all would run into each other at bike night at Quaker steak & lube or we would see them out having fun at their favorite bar Diamond back.
Big Daddy would buy a round of drinks. My heart breaks for Debbie. Brian will be missed by everyone dearly.

“ I was so sad to see Brian's picture when I opened my email today. I hadn't seen him in years and years. Much too young, but his obituary looks like his life was full of love, adventure, and happiness. God bless....thinking of his friends and family. ~Jennifer LeBail Dobrzeniecki
