“ Brian will be missed. What a gentleman and a good friend. We used to talk about the Indians all the time even gave him some Indians items that I had that I knew that he enjoyed. He loved his family and very proud of his girls and his dog always by his side. Heaven has a special angel up there with Brian. Rest in peace my friend. :) ”

“ I worked with Brian at Progressive for many years. He was a great guy, funny with a quick wit. He loved his family and was very proud of his daughters.

His dog, Lucy was his work companion.

He enjoyed the Progressive Thursday dinners at Trader Jack's and Max and Erma's. He will be greatly missed by his Progressive family. RIP Brian.
