

Bruce Gamiere

May 6, 1948 - February 15, 2018

Bruce Gamiere, age 69 of Mentor, passed away February 15, 2018 at Hillcrest Hospital. He was born May 6, 1948 in Pawtucket, RI.

Mr. Gamiere had worked as a wine sales consultant for Gil Schwartz Distributors from 1975-2002. Bruce also served the City of Mentor for multiple terms as a member of the Municipal Planning Commission, Board of Zoning Appeals, and the Mentor Ohio Port Authority. He enjoyed cooking, wood working and golfing with his Monday Hellriegel's golf group. An avid reader, Civil War buff and history lover, when not spending time in the state of Ohio, he retreated to their home in Estero, Florida to enjoy the warmer weather until it was time for golf in Ohio. A 1966 graduate of Willoughby South High School, he attended Bowling Green State University and the Cooper School of Art.

Survivors include his wife of 35 years, Cindy (Dober); children Rochelle (Mark Surman) Gamiere, Joshua Gamiere and Brooke Gamiere; grandchildren Alison, Matthew, Ava and Ashlyn; brother Brian (Carolyn) Gamiere and other loving family. He was preceded in death by his parents William and Virginia Gamiere.

A private family service will be held.

Inurnment will be in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to American Cancer Society,
10501 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44106

“ ... I told (Mark) Gagyi earlier today, who could forget Fordham, Fryman and GAMIERE !!!??? ... one of my fondest memories of Bruce, was he and Geoff Collins doing a rather well-done Temptations rendition of 'My Girl' on the stage, after the Beta 500 .. my sincere sympathy to the Gamiere family and all his friends ! ..
