

Bruce N. Mramor

May 17, 1942 - December 13, 2015

Bruce N. Mramor passed away unexpectedly on Sunday December 13, 2015 at Lake West Medical Center. He was born May 17, 1942 in Cleveland.

Mr. Mramor proudly served in the US Air Force after graduating from Eastlake North High School. He was an avid reader, who loved listening to classical, jazz and standard music. He enjoyed crossword puzzles and playing computer card games. Bruce loved spending time traveling in Upper Michigan. His favorite pastimes were watching the Chicago Cubs play baseball and major tennis tournaments.

Survivors include his wife: Midge, children: Tammy (Jerry) Hunsucker and Ronald Mramor, granddaughter: Heather (Marty) Hebebrand, great-grandson: Mason, stepdaughters: Suzy Sharp and Debbie (David) Russell, grandsons: Kevin and Brendon Sharp and David and Max Russell, siblings: John (Betty) Mramor and Joan Overholt and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding Bruce in death are his parents: John and Rose Mramor and beloved sister: Pat Burlison.

A celebration of Bruce's life will be held at a later date.
