January 8, 1932 - June 26, 2025

Carmen Masi (nee: Cole), 93, of Willoughby, passed away, June 26, 2025 at Mapleview Country Villa, Chardon. She was born January 8, 1932 to the late Theresa Snedeker and Michael Cole.

Carmen most enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, especially her beloved grandchildren. She was deeply proud of her Italian heritage. She loved spending winters in Florida with her late husband and camping in the summers with her family. She also enjoyed game nights with her friends, she was quite the card shark and was always a fierce competitor. Her faith led her to become a lector at both Divine Word and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parishes, and after retiring, she volunteered at Hillcrest Hospital.
