“ My Dear Carol,

Your suffering is over. May you now dance and sing with the angels on high and be whole again in the presence of Our Lord in the Heaven above that is beyond human comprehension and mere words.

You would have been very pleased with your viewing and funeral service. John did a wonderful job in their planning. But he has been so wonderful in his care of and love for you that I would have been remiss to doubt that it would be anything but perfect.

I will always miss my older sister and friend, Carol. You have helped and supported me in so many ways all our lives and I rejoice in the special person you are. You have enriched my life and I am eternally grateful and proud to call you "sister".

*Your loving sister,
Gen*

PS--I am now 70 years old and I still have my eye brows!

“ Carol and I met at an art show that we both entered and as we were critiquing we started talking and became friends through our shared interest of art. We painted together went out for lunches and had many heart to heart talks. Carol was not only inspirational but a person who taught me a lot about art, gardening and appreciation of life. Thank you Carol, what a beautiful spirit you have. Linda McMillan
