“ I remember Larry and I going over to Mom and Dads house to play Rummy. I was always partnered with Dad (Charles) and we always won. He wouldn't gloat but I did the dance, he would just tilt his head down and chuckle to himself. We both Knew how to beat Mom and Larry and we did so enjoy it. I ail miss you and the jokes about my cookies being used in the snow for stuck tires. A Good man a good husband and father. I know you are home and I know you are whole again. We shall all meet soon. RIP Dad
