We wish to express our sympathy at the loss of our extraordinary Connie. We loved her as our own. With her bright smile & twinkle in her eye we will cherish all the memories of how she touched each of our lives. She truly loved our family, we all felt it and knew it. We will always celebrate Connie's life. We pray God grants you the grace & peace to see this journey through while embracing your memories and remembering Connie. She was so proud of her family & all of your accomplishments. You meant the world to her and you were her life, as she was yours. So with that we celebrate her eternally.

“ Connie;
My beloved friend where we met 26 years ago at CT and became life-long friends, my soul sister. Our unconditional love, such a rare find. We have lived, loved, laughed, cried, shared amazing times together, while watching our husbands & children grow into the successful people they are now. We have enjoyed a wonderful journey because of the extraordinary selfless woman ‘you’, always helping others and giving of herself. There will never be another like you, so I will cherish every moment and celebrate your life with our memories forever in my heart! Now go flourish doing this same glory for God as He holds you in the palm of His hand and the Angels raise you up on eagles wings. Rest in peace my beautiful sis! My eternal love; Michelle Rosati.
