Tribute Wall

“ Bob: I have been blessed to know you and Cindy for so many years, and my heart aches for your loss. I keep thinking of those early days at Muskingum - seeing you two walking hand in hand across the quad, finding quiet corners in the library to study together, and those sweet moments in the chapel where young love flourished. Even then, Cindy’s gentle spirit and quiet grace were evident to all who knew her.

Over the decades, I watched her become the heart of your home - managing everything with such quiet strength, raising your family with devotion, and standing by you through all of life’s ups and downs. That little eye roll she’d give when you’d get carried away made me smile. She spoke volumes without saying a word.

Cindy’s love for you and your family was her greatest legacy.

Though she may have been measured with words, her actions showed a woman of deep love and unwavering commitment. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her gentle soul. Bill and Ann Farrall
