

Cynthia Teller-Adkins

November 15, 1963 - November 26, 2025

Cynthia Teller-Adkins, 62, of Willoughby, passed away November 26, 2025 peacefully at home, surrounded by her family. She was born November 15, 1963.

In her early years, Cindy was the life of the party. When Nicole, Katie, and Gracie were born, she traded those nights out for days at home with the girls and her husband, Glenn. Cindy enjoyed watching Jeopardy and the news, working in her garden, riding the motorcycle, spending time with her granddaughter, Molly, quilting, talking with neighbors outside, and Sunday mass at St. John Vianney's followed by breakfast.

Cindy will be remembered for her fierce love and loyalty to dozens - maybe hundreds - of patients, strangers, friends, and family. She leaves behind her husband of 24 years, Glenn Adkins Jr; daughters, Nicole (Patrick) Meidenbauer, Katie Adkins, and Gracie Adkins; granddaughter, Molly Meidenbauer; brother, Steve (Kathy) Teller; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and other loving family and friends. Preceding Cindy in death is her brother, Bobby Teller, and beloved parents, Stephen and Joyce Teller.

Cindy was always willing to answer a call, lend an ear, and show you that she cared. We believe she'll keep doing that, even while not physically with us.

Family and friends will be received from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., Thursday, December 11, 2025 at the Brunner Sanden Deitrick Funeral Home and Cremation Center, 8466 Mentor Ave., Mentor, Ohio 44060. A memorial mass will be held 9:30 a.m., Friday, December 12, 2025 at St. John Vianney Catholic Church, 7575 Bellflower Rd., Mentor, Ohio 44060. Please meet at the church. Burial to follow in All Souls Cemetery, Chardon.

In honor of Cindy, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of the Western Reserve, P.O. Box 72101, Cleveland 44192, donate online at www.hospicewr.org

“ Prayers for my family and all of my Cousin Cindy's friends gathering today for the visitation. I am very sad I can't be there. Cindy was like a sister to me, and every single time we spoke, our conversations were full of laughter. She was a good Godly light in a world full of great darkness. God bless 🙏👼❤️ Susan Rebecca Teller

“ To share a memory of my Cousin Cindy. 2 first come to my mind. First, I always called my precious Cousin Cindy Supermodel Cindy, because to me she has been just as naturally beautiful inside and out as Cindy Crawford, my Cousin's Cindy's soul radiated beauty and kindness and laughter and love and joy and only good Godly energy. She is a rare, precious human being. My second memory is my first week of 7th grade at Memorial Junior High School. My Cousin Cindy was in 9th grade. Every time I was in study hall that first week, countless 9th grade guys who had a crush on my Cousin Cindy, at the very least, easily over 20 total came up to me at different times offering me personal protection from anyone who ever would mess with me if I would just get them a date with my Cousin Cindy. My response was always, I don't think so, and I can take care of myself. I never told Cindy about it until we were in our 40s and of course we had a good hearty laugh about it. After that, I basically just admired my Cousin Cindy from afar in the gym after lunch, and I would just think about how beautiful she was on the outside and inside, because she was and will forever be to me. I love her more than any words can say. And with her passing, another piece of my heart has been ripped from my chest. Praying for everyone who will suffer the loss of my Supermodel, precious Cousin Cindy. Our bond will never be broken, ever. She is my la familia always and forever, Susan Rebecca Teller.

“ It doesn't happen often but I'm at a total loss for words. Little did I know that when you, Glenn and Nicole moved into the neighborhood everything would get bigger and brighter—Chuckie got a best buddy with Nicole, and Chuck and I got some of our best friends and neighbors. When your family grew with Katie and Gracie so did our hearts. You touched so many lives. You will be missed by hundreds, I'm sure. Thank you for bringing so much joy into our lives. We will love and miss you forever. Laurie, Chuck and Charles Hegedus
