“ I always loved Uncle Dan's cannon balls in Aunt Mary and Uncle Grant's pool. He seemed like such a dare devil doing those cannon balls and as a kid I thought it was so cool! I still think it's cool that he enjoyed those moments to the fullest. May he rest in eternal peace and his memory live on within us all!

“Dan, Dan the television man”. Grandma Provins said that all the time just to get a rise out of him...and it did!!! His love of adventure & the “live for today” mantra he carried seemed to be his legacy. Michelle, all your adventures & vacations with him will leave you with smiles, memories & love. Ann&Carl

“ When I think of your Dad, Michelle, I can vividly hear his voice. "Well...hello Jenny". It was the way he said it - his voice in an upbeat, bright manner. Perhaps you get your great voice from him.

As a child I recall seeing all the electronics he was working on. I think it was in the basement of your house or at the store. I was intrigued by all the projects and work he was doing.
